This Is Styleplus Week From Maine to California

Leading merchants throughout the entire nation are devoting this week to a Special Fall and Winter Display of STYLEPLUS CLOTHES—suits and overcoats. Store and window will flash their message of the latest style—the new and things in fabrics, designs, swaggar effects for snappy dressers, quiet models for substantial men.

Style for $17 is the order of the day. Men have rounded a corner. Their backs are turned on cheap-looking clothes and expensive clothes. Styleplus strikes the happy balance—all the Style that proud men want at the price that shrewd men gladly pay!

Styleplus Clothes $17

"The same price the world over."

The idea that immaculate style, all-wool fabrics, and superb workmanship could be supplied to the public at $17 was a daring conception. Equally daring and original are the manufacturing methods back of Styleplus. Such style at such a price was impossible before modern methods were applied in a big way to the problem. Specialization, vast output, scientific efficiency in every department, and making—these are the factors responsible for the unprecedented values in Styleplus.

To you who are about to buy your winter suit and overcoat, they mean:

Style plus through-and-through quality (all wool fabrics)

Style plus perfect fit (for every man of every age and physique)

Style plus economy (you save at least $3 to $8 on each suit)

Style plus guaranteed wear (a written guarantee with every Styleplus)

To stop in front of our Styleplus Window is to learn a lesson. To step inside our store is to turn the lesson into dollars in your pocket!

WHAT RUSSIANS WOULD LIKE

Military Feature of Control of Dardanelles Doesn't Completely Cover Her Dreams by Good Deal.

Under the caption, "Russia's Dreams," Harper's Weekly says: "The Slavic mind the fall of Constantinople will be the greatest military event in centuries."

Certainly, but the military feature of control of the Dardanelles doesn't completely cover Russia's dream by a good deal. Dream of a country whose population has increased 50 per cent in 40 years, whose resources in human necessities, such as fuel, food and building material, are hardly approached by any other country on earth, and such a country setting a fair chance to compete for the world's trade, and you are getting somewhere near the size of the Russian dream. Hundreds of thousands of acres of finest timber in one forest alone; unlimited oil spouting from mere pricking of the earth's crust; vast deposits of all sorts of minerals that have hardly been scratched; already leading the world in production of cereals; labor at original prices; an army of 10,000,000 fighters who fight merely because ordered to do so.

Do you dream of great Russian commercial fleets sailing the Mediterranean in continuous procession? May be the English, so-called "nation of traders," are dreaming such things. Maybe the next mighty struggle will be between the two great allies whose gunboats now have designs on the opposite ends of the Dardanelles passage. Stranger things have happened, and, after all, trade largely makes up the soul and conscience of nations.—Louisville Herald.

CLOGGED UP BY SEDIMENT

Flow of Water in City Main Restricted by Sedimentation and Incrustation Taking Place Within.

It has only recently been observed that the efficiency of the flow of water in a city's main is very much restricted by the sedimentation which takes place in them. Because of the slowness with which these deposits occur, it is not readily noticeable, but the difference is quickly discernible by making note of the character of the stream issuing therefrom before and after the cleaning. In the case of an eight-inch main in Camden, N. J., the capacity was found to have been cut down to less than one-quarter. Another illustration may be derived from the experience of Belle Plaine, La. Here a cast iron water pipe nearly a mile long and six inches in diameter had a capacity when clean of 345 gallons a minute, with a pressure of 60 pounds. This pipe became so clogged that a pressure of 115 pounds was necessary in order to deliver 245 gallons a minute. There are several mechanical means of accomplishing this task. One consists of a nine-foot device which is placed in the pipe and sent along by pressure behind it, and as it moves the deposit is cut by the many revolving knives of which it is made. A flow of water is maintained and the sediment is washed away as it is detached.

Fed Wood Pulp to Wounded.

A recent J. D. Wood pulp plant in Budapest because of the discovery of a scheme of a war contractor to feed war and wood pulp to wounded soldiers in hospital, according to a Budapest newspaper.

"The riot," says the paper in question, "was the outcome of an investigation into charges against the firm, who were the contract to feed the wounded soldiers at one of the temporary hospitals established in the spacious rooms and halls of the stock exchange."

"The inmates complained bitterly of the bad and insufficient food. The board of health began an investigation, and discovered that the firm was feeding the wounded with the flour used, and that instead of eggs a powder containing albumen was mixed with hard wax, usually employed in polishing floors, was used as the basis for the food."

"As soon as the discovery became known, the convalescent inmates attacked the contractor, who was rescued with difficulty. The military authorities insist that the contractor should be tried by court-martial. The man at present is held by the civil authorities."

NO CHANCE FOR BLACKS TO RECOVER ON COTTON

False Hope That Government Will Pay Claims.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—The fact that "once every so often" Southern legislators introduce a bill in Congress to recover some $70,000,000 collected from the South in early reconstruction days as internal revenue tax, is believed here to be responsible for the scheme which Secretary McAdoo exposed here today.

It has been claimed for many years that this tax was collected illegally. While this contention has never been sustained, frequent appeals have been made by Southern members of Congress that this money be returned to the cotton-producing states on a pro rata basis for some worthy use.

In view of the publicity which has been given these bills it is not surprising that an effort should be made to capitalize the ignorance of the negro by representing to him that he has a share of this sum waiting for him if efforts are made to collect it. Needless to say, such a statement is utterly groundless. There is no possible way of collecting by law any part of this money, either by an individual or by a state, and members of Congress who have sought to collect it have based their claims on the injustice of the tax rather than on its illegal aspects.

A section correspondent of the Petit Parisien, who has been traveling in Austria-Hungary, has brought back a picture postcard representing the entry of the German troops into the city of Vienna. The postcard, which is reproduced by the Petit Parisien, shows a German soldier in uniform, with a bayonet fixed to his rifle, passing in front of a group of Austrian soldiers who are looking on with interest.

TROOPS AMBUSHED BY YAGUI INDIANS

FORTY-FOUR SOLDIERS KILLED AND BODIES BURNED ON RAIL-ROAD BRIDGE.

Topobampo, Mex., Oct. 21.—A detachment of troops has been ambushed by Yagui Indians between the plantation of the United Sugar Company at Los Mochis and San Blas, Sinaloa, according to reports received here today, and forty-four of the forty-six soldiers were killed. The Indians then piled the bodies on a railroad bridge and setting fire to the latter destroyed all. The band consisted of 150 Indians.

The Indians are reported crossing the Puente river and moving toward one of the United Sugar Company plantations at Aguila about nine miles from Los Mochis. Carranza troops have been sent from Los Mochis to garrison against the Yagui.

Gen. Diegues, in command of the Carranza troops in Sinaloa and Sonora, is holding conferences with the Yagui chiefs and the necessary steps will be taken in an attempt to control the Indian situation.

Telegraphic communication has been re-established between Guaymas and Mazatlan, for the first time in almost three years.

Admiral Cameron McR. Winslow, aboard the United States cruiser San Diego, visited the French mining town of Santa Rosalia today. He found the copper mines operating at practically full capacity and perfect order prevailing.

Troops Are Ordered.
Washington, Oct. 23.—The Twenty-eighth regiment of infantry has been ordered from Galveston to Harlingen, Texas, by the war department as a result of the renewal of bandit raids on Texas border towns.

The troops will be used by Gen. Funston to give added protection to small posts, such as that at Ojo de Agua, where three soldiers were killed and eight wounded yesterday morning in a bandit attack.

The Twenty-third infantry, now at Jacksonville, Fla., in connection with the national rifle matches there, will be returned to Galveston, where it will be held in reserve for use on the border.

Officials explained that the army was doing all it legally could to check the bandit raids. The situation, they said, was a civil one, under the jurisdiction of Texas. Unless the governor should formally ask federal intervention there is no authority for the establishment of a military zone and declaration of martial law. Many of the raiders live on the American side, officials believe.

Army detachments guarding various towns may repel attacks, but cannot go beyond that without additional authority. As it is, the troops are acting beyond a rigid interpretation of their power in aiding in pursuit of raiders. War department officials, however, will give every possible aid to the civil authorities in protecting towns and ranches.

BUSINESS IN SOUTH IS NOW MUCH BETTER

PATIENCE DURING PERIOD OF TRIAL BEING REWARDED BY ERA OF PROSPERITY.

Atlanta, Oct. 25.—Business is unquestionably better in the Southeastern section, of which Atlanta is the commercial center. The South's steadfast patience during last year's period of trial is being dazlingly rewarded.

A part of the 1914 cotton crop was marketed last winter and spring at living prices. With fewer products to buy this year, as the result of more diversified farming, the South has a substantial 1915 cotton crop to sell at 12 cents, or possibly even higher quotations obtainable by waiting.

Cotton seed is being disposed of at prices never before heard of. Even the lint by-product of ginning cotton is bringing $50 a bale for use in relieving the sufferings of war victims.

The activity of the lumber industry that began in June has steadily increased. In general the conditions the most favorable this trade has known in eight years. Demand has surpassed output and prices are advancing.

The statements of railroads and other utilities, which were gloomy enough six months ago, show a most cheering improvement. Bank clearings are better. Local retail trade is actively on the increase in particular, if every Southern town and city, the newspapers are carrying big advertising space again, and it looks all along the line as if the first of the year would see even greater improvement.

COMMISSIONER PRICE ISSUES STATEMENT

DENIES UNDOE ACTIVITY RELATIVE TO WAREHOUSE LEGISLATION HIS OPINION WAS SOUGHT.

Atlanta, Oct. 25.—Relative to the statements which are being made in many of the newspapers of the state regarding proposed warehouse legislation at the extraordinary session of the General Assembly, and the alleged connection therewith of the State Department of Agriculture, Commissioner J. D. Price today said:

"While out of the city the past week on call to various counties in pursuit of the work of the department, I have read statements in various Georgia newspapers containing interviews from different sources relative to proposed warehouse legislation which came up last summer and which is to be considered in the coming extraordinary session of the Legislature. These statements have sought to connect the Department of Agriculture and myself as the head of it, with undue activity in the matter of this legislation on the alleged ground of personal interest.

"The truth of the matter is that I knew nothing whatever of the proposed warehouse legislation until parties interested in it from a purely business standpoint, came to me with a copy of a tentative bill which they had prepared, and asked me if I had any objection to the placing of the load of the administration of a state warehouse system under the Department of Agriculture. I replied to them that, in as much as I considered any warehouse measure one which should be devised and administered in the interests of the farmers of Georgia, I had no objection to its taking that form. It was my opinion that inasmuch as it was the particular duty of this department to look after the farmers' interests, it would be better, perhaps, to place the administration of the system with this department but that wherever it was placed, and whatever the Legislature might see fit to do about it, I personally and the department would do everything within our power to cooperate with the system to the end that the best results might be attained.

"That is my position today; it has always been my position regarding the proposed system. If it is the desire of the Legislature to place its administration with the department of agriculture, under any conditions or restrictions which it may deem proper to place upon it, it will be my duty and pleasure to see that it is administered in the farmers' interests and especially with a view to the protection of the small farmers of Georgia. If, on the other hand, the Legislature should think best to place the administration of the system elsewhere or to create an entirely new and separate department, it shall be equally my pleasure and determination to cooperate with it and lend every possible assistance looking to the successful administration of the law.

"My first desire in connection with any measure of this kind that may be enacted is that it shall be so drawn as to protect and safeguard the interests of every farmer in Georgia who may desire at any time to take advantage of the opportunity which it may offer. That is the only basis upon which it can prove a success."

GERMANIC ALLIES CUT THROUGH SERBIA

NOW HAVE OPEN ROAD TO CONNECT WITH THEIR TURKISH ALLIES.

London, Oct. 27.—The German army which crosses the Danube at Orsova has joined the Bulgarians who invaded Serbia near Prabhovo and the central powers now have an open road through Northeastern Serbia and Bulgaria to the Aegean sea and Constantinople.

The Germans thus are in a position to send guns and munitions by river and railway to their Turkish and Bulgarian allies.

The invasion of the northern portions of Serbia by the Austro-Germans continues, while Bulgaria is putting forth a strong effort to get control of the Belgrade-Saloniki railway.

So far as the north is concerned Serbia, her allies fear, is doomed, but in the south, reinforced by the British and French, Serbia is using all her strength to throw the Bulgarians back. After the French victory at Krivolak, the Serbians, according to Athens, reoccupied Vele, an important junction point south of Unkup, where a big battle is still in progress.

It is argued here that if the Bulgarians can be held in the south until Anglo-French reinforcements now on their way arrive, Bulgaria may yet be robbed of Macedonia, on which she has set her heart. But the Allies also will have to make an attempt to block the German road to Turkey and their big attack may be directed elsewhere.

The internal situation in Bulgaria, which is reported serious, may have some effect upon the campaign. A military conspiracy against King Ferdinand, Athens dispatches say, has been unearthed, and the leaders have been shot. Many inhabitants of Bulgaria are said to be still loyal to Russian and are showing disinclination to join the colors.

WANTS U. S. TO BE
SECOND NAVAL POWER

HENRY WOOD SAYS DANIELS' NAVAL POLICY IS "WHOLLY INSUFFICIENT."

New York, Oct. 27.—Secretary Daniels' naval program was criticized as "wholly insufficient" by Henry A. Wise Wood, a member of Daniels' naval advisory board, in an address before the Life Underwriters' association last night. Mr. Wood is chairman of the committee of national representatives of the president of the Club of America. He called upon the administration at Washington to lay before the country a plan which would place the United States positively in the position of the second naval power in the world. He urged that President Wilson tell the people what increases in the navy were necessary, how much the increase would cost and how soon a position as second naval power might be obtained.

Mr. Wood said that the manner in which the national defense estimate, involving the expenditure of $600,000,000 was announced indicates that the impression is sought to be given that an enormous sum is to be spent upon the navy. In reality he said the increases which are actually to be made during the coming year are slight while the five-year program was not binding upon future congresses.

JUDGE'S STRONG CHARGE.

It is customary in commenting upon the formal charge of the judge to the grand jury at the convening of the superior court to speak of it as a "strong charge." So common has the expression become, that it really means little.

The law itself is strong, and the duty of the judge is to present to the grand jury fresh upon their minds the meaning of the law. This is done usually in a perfunctory way, and the charge only extends to the presentation of those things which are supposed to reach to the offender afar off—never to the respectable citizen who might at the moment be sitting in the jury box. A deviation from the usual course was presented Monday morning by Judge Hardman.
After following the routine, he took occasion to make some salient references to the lack of respect for the law as evidenced by mob violence.
He declared in the plainest terms that those who participate in mob violence are criminals. Those who rejoice at such instances of lawlessness are bringing upon themselves and their children consequences which will be far-reaching.

The laws are man-made, he said, and are imperfect. But they are the bulwark of the individual liberty.
Because a man is not pleased with the verdict of a jury or the decision of a court, he said, he has no right to set himself up as an executor of the law. As one man cannot do this without making himself an outlaw, no number of men can do it without becoming criminals. The man-made law which gives the power to pass upon the guilt or innocence of persons accused, also places it in the province of courts to review the verdicts of those juries and sustain or reverse them; it also makes it the duty of the governor of the state to review the matter in some cases and approve or disapprove the verdicts of the juries and the decisions of the courts. Individuals nor aggregations of individuals cannot set themselves up in opposition to these matters without placing themselves without the law. To criticize the administration of the laws by the courts or juries, tends to break down the influence of the courts, and cannot be tolerated by good citizenship. Mob rule leads inevitably to anarchy—a state of no law. It carries back to that dark ages when the strongest ruled by might and not by right. The man who carried the big stick and wielded it with a strong arm, took what he coveted from his neighbor without let or hindrance. Every man was a law unto himself. Under our enlightenment, laws are made for the protection of the weak against the strong and they are too sacred to be lightly laid aside when individual opinions lead one to rebel against their enforcement.

THE THERMOMETER.

On the farm much besides personal comfort and health depends on the temperature. Chemical changes are going on about us at all times, and as a rule, take place more rapidly the warmer substances are. Note, for instance, the rapid rotting of fruit, the souring of milk, and decomposition in general when temperatures are high. It is important, therefore, on most farms to have a good thermometer and to expose it so that it will give an exact reading. The following suggestions are from an article published by one of the weather specialists in the department Yearbook.

When buying a thermometer select one which bears the name of the maker and with the thermometer is attached on the glass stem, although one so made is usually more expensive than one with a metal scale. Further, in choosing a thermometer one should have in mind the use for which it is intended. There are thermometers for all uses—cooking, dairying, for outdoor, and so on. Thermometers for scientific purposes are provided with a Centigrade scale in which zero is the freezing point and 100 degrees is the boiling point.

In most cases a thermometer hung in the free air will not give the actual temperature of the air, because the instrument may be subject to the direct rays of the sun, and because radiation from the thermometer can take place unimpeded. Probably the best way to expose a thermometer in order to determine the temperature of the air is to hang it in a shelter so made that air may blow freely through it. A good result may be obtained also by rapidly whirling the thermometer in an outdoor shade.

Mail Delivery By Automobile.

Automobile rural free delivery of the mail, in places where it is being tried out in Georgia, is not traveling an easy road. In the first place there is dissatisfaction because some of the carriers have lost their jobs through the consolidation of routes, and others either failed to stand the new examination required or were beaten in the contest by other men. Then, too, it is said that on account of the bad condition of much of the road mileage traveled by the old carriers in buggies it is difficult for carriers in automobiles to make their rounds on time.

It is also said that there should be objections to the change that it would work a hardship on some persons, and it is possible that the old system will be re-established in some places, but on any routes where the condition of the roads is the only argument against automobile delivery the patrons themselves should see to it that this argument is answered by road improvement. If they do, they will not only get their mail more quickly, but will enjoy all the other benefits that come from good roads. On paper the substitution of automobiles for buggies appears to be a step forward, but the law of the step is taken it should not be retraced without a test that proves it is not desirable.

Certainly there should be no replacing of old carriers who can do efficient work. On routes where the change to automobile delivery gives the patron better service there should be no thought of returning to delivery in buggies, but at the same time the tried and trusted employees in the civil service should be given an opportunity to make good under the new conditions.—Savannah News.

MARINES OF MANY NATIONS
WEPT FOR DEAD JACKIE

Peking, China, Oct. 27.—Death, that grim leveler of all ranks, that still-voiced dispenser of hatred and war-singer, joined, in the common pools of sympathy and sorrow, all the military representatives of the world's warring powers at the funeral of an American marine. Private William R. McComb, held here recently, McComb, a member of the United States Marine Corps Guard at the American Legation here, died after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was No. 94, British cemetery, while Austrian, Japanese, British, French, Russian, German and Italian soldiers rubbed shoulders at the funeral gave vent to the common sorrow. What matter if the whole world was at war? Their world—military world—was mourning the death of a comrade. McComb, the American marine. And so they wept, stern, silent and unshamed, these warrior warriors, as reverently and sadly they placed floral tributes on the coffin, and formed in columns of squad behind the casket on which the body was borne to its temporary resting place. The funeral ceremonies ended, they returned to their various legations to become enemies once more. But, for one brief moment, all the world had been at peace so far as military Peking knew or cares.

THE REMAINS OF PRIVATE McCOMB WILL BE DISINTERRED IN TIME AND SHIPPED TO THE UNITED STATES FOR BURIAL.

A brother, Robert T. McComb, 4424
North Hamlin Avenue, Chicago, Ill., now survives.

CRIME DECREASES
WITH PROHIBITIONBIBB REPRESENTATIVE RE-CEIVES ANOTHER LETTER FROM HIS ALABAMA FRIEND.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 23.—Representative H. L. Barfield, who will be one of the representatives of Bibb county at the special session of the legislature at which the prohibition question will be taken up, has received another letter from Judge Samuel D. Weakley, of Montgomery, Ala., giving some more information as to the effect on that state prohibition has had.

Judge Weakley endeavored to show that crime in the decrease in Alabama with the prohibition measure in force. Judge Weakley's letter is as follows:
Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 1915.
Mr. H. L. Barfield, Macon, Ga.

My Dear Sir: I thank you for the marked copy of The Macon News containing information you gave out about the effect of the prohibition laws on Alabama. I sent you yesterday from Birmingham, Ala., a copy of The Alabama Citizen containing some figures as to the arrests in that city for September, 1915. The police inspector told me a few days ago that the statistics were better than they had ever been.

About ten days ago an effort was made to sell a drink called Ambrosia, but upon finding that it was a malt drink of the kind called "near beer," and upon being advised that this was contrary to our laws, the sheriff and police inspector intervened, and the sale of "near beer" was promptly stopped. The offenders claimed to be ignorant of the fact that they were violating the law, agreed to ship the stock back to Louisville, Ky., which was done, and this scheme of outside brewers was promptly checked.

We have just concluded a state fair at Birmingham, the largest, best attended, and most successful ever held.
It was said in our papers that there were more than 150,000 paid admissions passed through the gates. It lasted one week and one day. Children's day more than 30,000 people attended. It was stated on Saturday last in the Birmingham Ledger and in the two Sunday morning papers over the signature of the president of the fair, that during the entire fair not a single arrest occurred on the ground for any cause, and that there was no drunkenness and no disorder, and no accident of any kind.

What city of 160,000 people in a county of 300,000 population, with many visitors from surrounding counties would not be proud of such a record? Could such a thing have happened if we had not benefited saloons on July 12? Could it happen in any other community, or even in a small one with whisky or near beer saloons?
I leave any thoughtful fair-minded man to answer these questions for himself.

As a circumstance that may aid in finding the proper answer I wish to state this fact: On Labor Day with an enormous outpouring of people this year (Sept. 6), the total arrests in Birmingham for all causes (and they were for only minor offenses) numbered eleven. Last year with saloons and a far smaller crowd the arrests in the same city numbered 106.
Here is a reduction of 90 per cent.

I could write much more along this line, but this will suffice to real prohibit the advantage of a real prohibitory system. No saloons, no liquor advertising, no breweries, no distilleries—a clean sweep of the whole wretched business. May Georgia do likewise.

With personal regards,
SAMUEL D. WEAKLEY.

Catarrh a Blood Disease
S.S.S. Drives It From Your System

Because Catarrh affects the nose and throat, causing soreness in the throat, stoppage of the passages and gathering in the throat, it has been common practice to treat Catarrh by the use of cathartics and purgatives to these parts. This mode of treatment is entirely wrong. It cannot give permanent relief, and is liable to irritate and aggravate the trouble. Catarrh cannot be trifled with. If attended to by the use of S. S. S., the bronchial tubes, set on the lungs, the stomach—indeed it is a very terrible disease. Don't treat it locally.
The fact that it causes headaches is proof that it is caused by impure and diseased blood. The one treatment that has proved effective in the treatment of Catarrh is S. S. S.

Life Sentence for Murder.

Sam Speakes, a negro boy about 18 years old, was convicted in the superior court yesterday and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of Laura Jinks. The killing occurred at Stillson early last spring.
Speakes' home was in Savannah, though he had been living with the woman for several months. The motives for the crime was robbery.
After shooting the woman down on the road near her home, the boy took from her person $32 in cash which he carried tied about her. He was captured the next day three miles away, making his way toward Savannah. He admitted the killing and the motive at the time. On the stand he contended that the woman tried to shoot him and that he acted in self-defense. The dead woman had a pistol clutched in her hand when she was found.

5 or 6 doses of 666 will break any cases of Fever or Chills. Price 25c.

EYEWITNESS TELLS OF ARMENIAN HORRORS

BISHOP WAS SHOT WITH SHOES OF RED HOT IRON--MOTHERS BAYONETED BEFORE THE EYES OF THEIR CHILDREN.

London, Oct. 25.—A long account by an eyewitness of Armenian atrocities is telegraphed by the Reuters correspondent with the Dardanelles troops. The statement is from an official source, the correspondent explained that it was given to the British staff by an Armenian serving in Turkish army who had been taken prisoner.

This account begins at Erzerum, the principal city of Turkish Armenia, last March. It covers travels about various parts of Armenia and gives details of various atrocities along family lines—how the bishop of Sivas was shot with shoes of red hot iron by a village blacksmith at the order of the Turks, how men of Tokat were tied together in groups of four and taken out one hundred at a time to the marshy districts for massacre and how the declaration of martial law at Zile included the confiscation of all Armenian property.

The account describes how women were tied to the tails of ox carts and urged upon them the undesirability of allowing a large alien and presumably unfriendly population to inhabit ports which lie open to Russian attack.

EDITH CAVELL CALLED THE GREATEST MARTYR

The Hague, Oct. 22.—The Nieuwe Courant calls Miss Edith Cavell, the English nurse executed in Brussels, "one of the great martyrs of centuries," but admits that by sheltering her own countrymen, who were enemies of Germany, she committed a punishable crime.

"But the execution was inhuman," the paper declares, "the Germans apparently desired to give a terrifying example, which, however, only aroused embitterment and strengthened the opinion in neutral countries that Germany is ruling Belgium with unnecessary cruelty and harshness."

"The same price the world over."

The idea that immaculate style, all-wool fabrics, and superb workmanship could be supplied to the public at $17 was a daring conception. Equally daring and original are the manufacturing methods back of Styleplus. Such style at such a price was impossible before modern methods were applied in a big way to the problem. Specialization, vast output, scientific efficiency in every department of buying and making—these are the factors responsible for the unprecedented values in Styleplus.

To you who are about to buy your winter suit and overcoat, they mean:

Style plus through-and-through quality (all wool fabrics)

NEW YORK POLICE HOLD GERMAN AGENTS

ADMIT THAT THEY PLANNED TO INTERFERE WITH SHIPMENT OF AMMUNITION TO ALLIES.

New York, Oct. 25.—Robert Fay, who is said to be a lieutenant in the German army, and his brother-in-law, Walter L. Scholz, arrested yesterday while testing explosives near Grantwood, N. J., were assigned today before a justice of the peace at Weehawken, N. J., on charges of conspiracy and held without bail for examination tomorrow.

Announcement was made at police headquarters by Commissioner Woods that Fay, after an all-night grilling, had made a confession.

For more than two hours, it was stated, Fay maintained that he was not connected with the German government. At 5:30 o'clock this morning, according to the commissioner, he broke down and admitted that he was a lieutenant in the German army and came to this country two or three months ago to experiment with a machine containing high explosives.

This machine, the commissioner said, was to be attached to the propeller or rudder of a ship. It was so constructed, he said, that the stirring of the water would cause a rod, connecting with one of the cogs, to release a spring, resulting in an explosion, which would disable the ship and force her to enter the nearest port.

After a few days the officers learning that two men had been attempting to purchase an acid used in the manufacture of explosives. Suspicion fell on Fay and Scholz. Until today they had done nothing to tend to confirm the suspicion of the police that they were on the right scent.

Today, however, they boarded a trolley car and rode to a small grove at the edge of Weehawken. The police followed in an automobile. When they came upon the two men, the police asserted, they were testing an explosive. Their detention followed.

While part of the squad were taking the suspects to a station house others went to their room. Only a few admissions were gained from the prisoners. Fay is 34 years of age, his companion 31.

STATE PRISON GUARDS HAVE BEEN FIRED

Deputy Warden is Removed and One Has Resigned.

Atlanta, Oct. 23.—There have been several changes at the state prison farm lately among the staff of officers. Five of the guards and deputy warden have been removed and one has resigned, and it may be that further changes will be made in the early future. Announcement from the office of the commission is that the changes are in the interest of increased efficiency. Among those who have been removed by the commission are the night guard who was on duty the night Frank was taken away from the institution and the man who was in charge of the tuberculosis camp when a noted prisoner wanted by the federal authorities made his escape.

The changes do not effect Warden Smith or Superintendent Burke. It has been known for some time that friction existed at the state farm and it was reported that the warden was not getting proper co-operation from some of the deputies and guards, but whatever policy the commission has adopted as a result of it has not been made public, beyond whatever conclusions may be drawn from the unusual number of changes that have lately been made.

DID HE DECEIVE THEM?

SCHOOLMASTER'S ASSERTION WAS NEVER VERIFIED.

True or Not, However, It Had the Effect of Making Culprits Own Up to Guilt and Take the Consequences.

Describing the lighter side of school life, Ian Hay, the Scotch novelist, tells of a schoolmaster who called his boys together.

"A very unpleasant and discreditable thing has happened," he said. "The municipal authorities have recently erected a pair of extremely ornate and expensive lampposts outside the residence of the mayor of the town."

"Those lampposts appear to have attracted the unfavorable notice of the school."

"Last Sunday evening, between seven and eight o'clock, they were attacked and wrecked, apparently by volleys of stone."

"There was a faint but appreciative murmur from those members of the school to whom the news of this outrage was now made public for the first time. But a babbling dash from the schoolmaster's spectacles restored instant silence."

"Several parties of boys," he continued, "must have passed these lampposts on that evening, on their way back to their respective houses after chapel. I wish to see all boys who in any way participated in the outrage in my study directly after second school. I warn them that I shall make a severe example of them."

His voice rose to a blare.

"I will not have the prestige and fair fame of the school lowered in the eyes of the town by the vulgar barbarities of a parcel of ill-conditioned little street boys. You may go!"

The audience rose to their feet and began to steal silently away. But they were puzzled. The Old Man was no fool, as a rule. Did he really imagine that those boys would be such mugs as to own up?

But before the first boy reached the door the head spoke again.

"I may mention," he added very gently, "that the attack upon the lampposts was witnessed by a gentleman resident in the neighborhood, a warm friend of the school. He was able to identify one of the culprits, whose name is in my possession. That is all."

Quite enough, too. When the schoolmaster visited his study after second school he found 17 malefactors meekly awaiting chastisement.

But he never divulged the name of the boy who had been recognized, or for that matter, the identity of the warm friend of the school. I wonder!

Canada's 72-inch Reflector.

Work is progressing rapidly on this instrument, which will be probably, for a short time, the largest telescope in the world, pending the completion of the 100-inch reflector for Mt. Wilson. The disk for the great lens was finally placed on the grinding table before the war broke out. After its arrival at New York the Pennsylvania railroad was about a week in finding a suitable car to transport it to Pittsburgh, and then there was further delay before an iron wagon could be obtained to transport it to Doctor Brabner's workshop, where it was finally placed on the grinding table. The hazardous work of boring and smoothing of the hole in the center of the mirror has been accomplished. The mounting will be completed by October next—Scientific American.

Motorcycle Ambulances.

The uses of the motorcycle are unlimited. They are used as pleasure vehicles, for delivering messages, packages, and lately are developing into useful conveyances for heavy loads, as they are built more powerfully and with more endurance each succeeding year. The last word in usefulness is their adoption by several European nations as conveyances for the wounded in battle.

A side-car containing an ambulance stretcher is attached to the machine, the said stretcher being removable so that it can be taken to any part of the field of battle. Much time is saved by using this conveyance, as it can be driven to many places that an automobile cannot penetrate, and much more ground can be covered in less time than a wagon or a corps of men could do.

Appearances Deceptive.

Whilst making his usual daily inspection of the stables the colonel noticed Private Jones giving his horse a piece of lump sugar.

"I am very pleased to see you making much of your horse, Private Jones," he said, "it shows that you regard him with the true spirit, and I will not forget you for it."

Private Jones waited until his commanding officer was out of earshot, and then turned to his neighbor.

"I wasn't making much of him," he said. "The blighter threw me off this morning, and I'm trying to give him the blinkin' toothache."

Are You Keeping Up Your Account

Many people start an account and let it go at that. It's a good thing to make that start at the Sea Island Bank, but unless you keep it up it will make no more abiding impression upon your success than a shadow upon a field of corn.

If you bank money while you earn it, you will have money when you can't earn it.

TEUTONS READY TO OFFER PEACE PLANS

POPE WILL NOT BE PARTY TO MOVE UNLESS ASSURED ALLIES WILL GIVE IT CONSIDERATION.

London, Nov. 2.—Anent the persistent reports that Austria and Germany are about to initiate peace negotiations, the Rome correspondent of the Daily News, attributing his information to a "trustworthy" source, telegraphs:

"The Pope is determined not to support any initiative toward peace obviously inspired by the Austro-Germans unless assured there is a possibility that the allies are favorable to a consideration of proposals. Switzerland also is determined to abstain from any peace negotiations which are foredoomed to failure."

"The Pope is determined not to support any initiative toward peace obviously inspired by the Austro-Germans unless assured there is a possibility that the allies are favorable to a consideration of proposals. Switzerland also is determined to abstain from any peace negotiations which are foredoomed to failure."

VON BUELOW IS REPORTED DRAWING UP PEACE PLANS

Bologna, Italy, Nov. 1.—(Via Paris Nov. 2.)—Prince Von Buelow, reported to have been sent to Switzerland by the German government to initiate peace negotiations, will remain at Lucerne three or four weeks, says the Berner correspondent of the Resto Del Carlino, to collaborate with Monsignor Marchetti, papal delegate to Switzerland, in drawing up peace proposals which Pope Benedict could submit to the entente powers.

The Resto Del Carlino asserts the pontiff himself now is engaged in combining the most promising features of various projects for mediation which hitherto have been suggested into one precise and definite plan. The paper reviews the report that the pope will seek to induce President Wilson to act simultaneously with him in intervention in behalf of peace.

SAYS PEACE CONFERENCE IS BEING ARRANGED

Geneva, Nov. 2.—(Via Paris.)—The Swiss press is commenting extensively on the visit of Prince Von Buelow in Switzerland. Although it is stated the prince has come to Switzerland merely for a holiday, the Basel Nachrichten asserts he is accompanied by two high officials of the German foreign office.

It is known here that Prince Von Buelow will shortly meet Monsignor Marchetti, papal delegate to Switzerland.

IT IS A NEW DAY

A new day has come. The man who relies upon his own ability—who feels safe conducting his affairs by antiquated methods—who does not know the benefits he could make his own—a man who is falling behind. He is falling to make progress because he fails to use the machinery of a bank that will help him.

On the other hand, the man who makes the use of his bank grows because he is appearing to take advantage of every opportunity. He accumulates through the bank and has money for his needs or by credit, which he has built at the bank, he can borrow when opportunity offers a profitable use of funds.

Start with the First National Bank. Your future is very largely what you make it.

GOVERNMENT ADVISES SAFE FARMING ALWAYS

PROGRAM RECOMMENDED BY GOVERNMENT SPECIALISTS TO SECURE SAFETY IN THE COTTON MARKET.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—A program of "safe farming" for the south is outlined in a circular which the United States Department of Agriculture has sent to bankers, business men and farmers in the cotton states. The history of agriculture in the south, it has been said, has been one of lean years and fat years. Short crops and high prices have almost invariably been followed by big crops and low prices and, in consequence, the farmer has experienced much distress. The increased attention which has recently been given to supporting the people upon the land has already resulted in much good, but there is some danger, it is pointed out, that with the heavy cotton raising, there will be a tendency for farmers to return to the old system of gambling on cotton. If the people of the south produce their own living, the circular points out, it would steady the whole system and keep the boat from rocking.
